Question: Do you have close friends at CBC? Do you feel connected?

Connection is really a sense of love for one another. This issue of connection or love for one another is at the very forefront of Christ's concern for the Church.

"A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another." John 13:34

Lessons from John 13:34-

Lesson #1- Jesus is giving a new command.

Lesson #2- Love one another.

Lesson #3- As I have loved you.

The chief mark of the believer/Christian is love for one-another! Not piety, ritual, sermon preaching, new buildings, the right kind of music.

The question then is very personal. How is God directing you to love others?

Here are the right questions:

Does anybody feel loved by (place your name here) at CBC yet?

Is (place your name here) helping other people feel connected?
