

“Harvesting Across the Globe”

Pastor Mark Watkins

September 20, 2009

If we are going to be involved in the harvest, we must be committed to missions...

I. Because we are called to significance. (Luke 5:1-11)

“Working in the harvest on the mission fields of the world is a ministry of tremendous significance. But it doesn’t happen without leaving something behind. We have to follow His call to move from success to significance. And that movement requires us to go out of our comfort zones.”

Hans Finzel from The Next Mile: Short-term Missions for the Long Haul Mile Post Devotional Volume One, Authentic Media, 2005, p.41.

Success is of this world, significance is of the next.

II. Because our attitude should be the same as Jesus’ attitude. (Philippians 2:5-13)

Jesus was the ultimate cross-cultural missionary.

III. Because we are players not spectators. (Acts 13:1-3)

“Moses said to the Gadites and Reubenites, ‘Shall your countrymen go to war while you sit here?’”

Numbers 32:6

CBC is a sending church, not a supporting church.

The question we need to ask is:
